summer. Mrs. Wooten was taken ill with malarial fever, and remained in the hospital for three or four weeks prior to her death. She was a native of California and a graduate of the university of that State. Funeral exercises will take place to-morrow at 10 o'clock. Her death has cast a gloom over the students of Trinity College, for she was greatly beloved by all.

Mrs. Maria Louise Dishman.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Fredericksburg, Va., September 12.—

Mrs. Maria Louise Dishman, widow of Fautleroy Dishman, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. F. Rollins, at Colonial Beach, aged seventy-four years. She is survived by three daughters.

Alexander Pratt.

Fredericksburg, Va., September 12.—

Alexander Pratt, a Confederate veteran, successful farmer and prominent citizen of King George county, died at his home to-day after a lingering illness, aged sixty-nine years. Mr. Pratt was a Democrat and took an active interest in his party. He was a member of the Ninth Virginia Cavalry in the Confederate army dur-
