
DEATHS

Bowling Louis Mitchell.
LYNCHBURG, VA., May 1.— Bowling Louis Mitchell, 81 years of age, died at his home at Bearch, Amherst County, Thursday night, having suffered a stroke of paralysis several days previously. He was a Confederate veteran, having volunteers at the age of 18, and served in Kirkpatrick's battery. His wife, who was Miss Mollie Reynolds, of Rockbridge County, died last November. He had been blind for fourteen years. He was a member of Corner Stone Baptist Church and is survived by these children: S. B. and C. W. Mitchell and Mrs. H. M. Thomas, of Lynchburg; C. C. and P. P. Mitchell, of Peach; D. E. Mitchell, Mrs. S. B.
Hudson and Mrs. N. M. Hicks, of Roanoke; Mrs. S. M. Tomlinson, of Big Island, and Mrs. McLeod Tanner, of Coleman Falls.
