

Will Of David Dishman, Sr. (1712-1794)

In the name of God, Amen. I, David Dishman of St. Anne Parish, in the county of Essex, being in perfect health, sense and memory, thanks be to God, do make this my last Will and testament as follows:

- Imprimis I lend unto my two daughters Sarah Dishman and Jenny Dishman my house wherein I now live, together with five acres of land adjoining thereto during the time of a single life.
- Item I give, devise, and bequeath unto my two sons David Dishman and John Dishman all my land whereon I now live (after reserving one half acre for a burying place, as also the aforesaid loan during the single life of Sarah and Jenny Dishman) to be equally divided between them and their heirs forever.
- Item I give, devise, and bequeath unto my son Isaac Dishman my right of the land leased of Capt. Henry Garnett, to him and his heirs or assigns during the life of said Garnett.
- Item All the remainder of my estate I leave to be equally divided amongst those hereafter mentioned, namely, Mary Robenson and Sarah Dishman, each one share. The heirs of Samuel Dishman one share amongst them. David Dishman, John Dishman, Dinah Spearman, Isaac Dishman, Anna Gray and Jenny Dishman, each one share to them and their heirs forever. But if either of two daughters Sarah Dishman or Jenny Dishman shall depart this life without first marrying, in that event, what is given to her shall revert and be divided among my then surviving children.
- Lastly I do constitute and appoint my three sons David Dishman, John Dishman, and Isaac Dishman, executors of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 25 day of April in the year of our Lord God 1788.
